THE KING'S LAW.

The hierarchy who during the session of Congress kept himself so quietly encoined behind his bare walls, now that Congress has adjourned without taking any action by which his many crimes may be unveiled and punished, like a ground hog issues from his hole. A long retirement has evidently had a bad effect upon his temper, and from the sacred desk (or rather from what it is, a scribble to call by no sacred name) he gives full vent to his Christian (?) splenetic gall. The department and language of the holy (?) adulterer, in his baroque at the Bowers on Sunday last, were most extravagant, uncouth and disgusting. They are indicative of a "dark, sullen, morose disposition, which, in the prosecution of its mischievous purposes, is alike reckless of divine and human law." They unmistakably denote a wicked, depraved and malignant heart, wholly unfitness of social duty, and fatally bent on mischief.

Just think of it: A man who claims to have telegraphic communication with the throne of high Heaven—to act under Divine sanction and direction—pantomimically exhibiting from what in mockery he chooses to call a sacred desk, to the gaze of the flock of old sheep and young lambs who he has under his saintly charge to feed, a bowie-knife, and for their spiritual instruction declaring that to be his law! Dearly beloved brethren of this latter-day dispensation, would you not doubt the Christian piety, meekness and loving-kindness of any other man, except this living, moving oracle of God, your prophet, king and shepherd, who should, in the name of God, from the pulpit make such a declaration? And while of course you yourselves would not be the least alarmed about such spiritual food being potent enough to perforate your galvanized stomachs, don't you quake for the tender lambs? Ain't there danger that the lambs will sicken and languish on such ritual food?

Does any one doubt that such is the law of this tyrant and impostor? No, it cannot for a moment be doubted. The imploring looks, the upheld hands, the shrieks and groans, the scattered locks and the bleaching bones of male and female, young and old, father, mother, sister, brother, upon the plains of Mountain Meadow, still cry out, No! And again it is repeated by the cruel and savage edict for the murder in cold blood of eighty defenceless and unsuspecting men. The dripping fingers of this monster, repeat, No! and still the robes of the lamented Dr. Bradford, from the silent precincts of the tomb upon the Bench, exclaim, No! No! No!!

Yea, verily, we all know and own and feel, that the law of this upright beast—the sum of all that is low, foul and depraved—is the law of the highwayman, the road agent, the assassin. The bowie-knife is the law in their hands that brings forth the purse or nicks the thread of life.

Think of it: A man claiming to bear upon his shoulders the sacred garb of a minister of the meek and lowly Savior, whose mission under such claims should be to turn the feet of the erring into the straight and narrow path, talking about sending human souls to Hell across lots, and calling upon the Savior of all good to witness the fact that if any one dare to jump any of his numerous lots (to which, except his harrow, he has not a shadow of title) to send them to Hell certain, and without benefit of clergy.

If there be tears in Heaven let them be shed over such a melancholy spectacle.

The Harrow Keeper has evidently had his gall considerably stirred up by the publication of his humane and christian order for the cold blooded eighty-four defenceless and unsuspecting men. The weapons carved out by one's own hands, when turned against his own breast, are much more pungent than any other. This is well illustrated by Esop in the fable of the Buzzard and the arrow: "A bowman, once upon a time, took aim at a Buzzard and hit him in the heart. As the Buzzard turned his head in the agonies of death, he saw the arrow was winged with his own feathers. How much sharper, said he, are the wounds made by weapons which we ourselves have supplied." The weapon furnished by Brigham, and with which he is sorely wounded, produces too much pain for his power of endurance. He writhes tremendously under its smart; yet his writhing will be in vain; the die is cast.

The reader will observe that we have done violence to Esop by substituting, in his fable, a Buzzard in the place of an Eagle, for which we beg Esop's pardon, and make this apology, that we make the substitution not to reflect any dishonor upon the Buzzard by an invidious comparison, for we think the Buzzard a noble bird in his sphere, but we made the substitution out of respect to the Eagle, a bird, the emblem of liberty, and to make our analogy more perfect.

GOVERNOR BRADLET AT HOME.—Gov. Bradlet arrived at Carson on Tuesday night from California. He has completely recovered from his recent severe illness, and looks better, so State Geologist Stretcher informs us, than when he departed for San Francisco.—Enterprise P.A.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.)

Preliminaries of the Philadelphia Convention.

Speech of Governor Orr.

Arrival of the United States Fleet at St. Petersburg.

The Armistice Between Italy and Austria Extended.

Trouble at Vienna.

Indian Affairs.

Florence, Aug. 8.

The term for the suspension of hostilities has been prolonged.

Peace negotiations between Austria and Italy will take place at Prague. Count Barilli and Gen. Marzulli will be the Italian plenipotentiaries.

There was a severe storm on the Adriatic yesterday, by which several vessels of the Italian fleet were damaged. The Italian ram Affondatore was sunk in the port of Ancona; crew saved.

Paris, Aug. 8.

The Empress of Mexico arrived at St. Nazaire to-day, in the imperial steamer. Eugene is going to meet her to-morrow.

Houston, Texas, Aug. 10.

The State Legislature convened on the 6th, and Gov. Throckmorton was inaugurated yesterday.

New Orleans, Aug. 10.

Cholera deaths from 6 A.M. yesterday, to 6 P.M. to-day, number 24.

Cincinnati, Aug. 10.

Since last evening at six o'clock, the books of the health office show 40 deaths by cholera; 9 only being new cases; others, though not being reported, one. The health officer declares the disease to be on the decline. The whole number of deaths from all diseases during the past 24 hours is 75.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.

Although the National Convention will assemble Tuesday it will probably adjourn over until the following day after a short session, as the wigwag will not be entirely completed until then. When the wigwag is completed it will be the largest structure ever erected in the United States for political purposes. Seats have been provided for one hundred and thirty journalists in front of the speakers stand.

The National Union State Central Committee of this State have agreed upon a full list of delegates, including Edgar Cowan, Wm. F. Johnston, J. K. Elamigan and W. H. Tracy, delegates at large.

Delegates are already arriving and it is believed at least three thousand will be present from all sections.

By cable to the associated press:

London, Aug. 10.

Noon.—The armistice between Austria and Italy, which expired Saturday last, has been renewed for four weeks. The official Berlin paper opposes the claim of France for an extension of the frontier.

The Czar of Russia has visited the United States squadron at Cronstadt.

Liverpool, Aug. 13.

Noon.—The cotton market is steady to-day; the sales are estimated at 10,000 bales.

London, Aug. 13.

Noon.—Consols 87½; U. S. 5-20's 68½; P. M.—There is no important political news this evening.

Liverpool, Aug. 13.

Evening.—Cotton market closed firm; sales to-day were 12,000 bales; middling nplands 13½d.

London, Aug. 13.

Even.—Consols 87½; U. S. 5-20's 68½; Illinois Central R. R. 72½; Erie R. R. 42½.

New York, Aug. 13.

The Savannah Herald, of Friday, reports 12 deaths from cholera on the Lawton place, Hilton Head Island, including 2 white men. The disease has entirely abated.

Edwards Pierpont telegraphs to the Evening Post that he declined to be a delegate to the Philadelphia Convention. City of Mexico advices of the 20th ult. say there is little doubt that the Emperor Maximilian and his dependents will leave this continent at an early day. The only hope of success is in the entreaties of the Empress in Europe.

Washington, Aug. 13.

Colonel Leavenworth, Indian Agent in the country of the Kiowas and Comanches, has just arrived here, and states that the Cheyennes from the north and those from the south, together with the Arapahoes and the Aysenababandis of the Sioux, are meeting in the Smoky Hill country to hold their great meeting. The Cheyennes say the whites shall not make roads through the Smoky Hill country, as it is their hunting ground.

It is thought that much depends upon the result of the council held at the Medicine Lodge as to the attitude of these tribes toward the Government. If hostile influences should prevail trouble may be anticipated from these Indians. The Kiowas and Comanches are quiet and peaceable and are in a prosperous condition.

The second Comptroller of the Treasury reports that the arrears of pay and bounty can not be paid to disloyalists, nor can such arrears be passed over and payment made in the next person in the order of inheritance, prescribed by the act of July 11th, 1862.

In the case, which called forth the above decision, he says, the case is not similar to that of a non-resident of the United States, inasmuch as the act referred to provides for payment to the next heir resident, as in the order prescribed; that no such provision is made in any law, for passing over a disloyal heir, and that in such cases the money is to be restored to the United States.

In compliance with a recent order of the War Department, the re-arranging of the commands of the different military departments has commenced. Gen. Canby has assumed command of the Department of Washington, vice Br. Maj. Gen. Augur.

Washington, Aug. 13.

Queen Emma, of the Sandwich Islands, arrived here this evening.

The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue has written the following relating to the tax on cigars:

Washington, Aug. 13.

Sir:—In answer to your letter of the 1st, I have to say that by bonding your cigars you can have them appraised at the wholesale market value, and on withdrawing them from consumption you can sell them as you please, at wholesale or retail, as you may find convenient, but if no tax is paid upon the cigars until they are sold, the actual price received, whether at wholesale or retail, must be paid and assessed upon at such price. The tax on cigars sold at $30 per thousand is $10; but if the same quantity of cigars are retailed at $50 per thousand, the tax will be $14.

meers, but if no tax is paid upon the cigars until they are sold, the actual price received, whether at wholesale or retail, must be paid and assessed upon at such price. The tax on cigars sold at $30 per thousand is $10; but if the same quantity of cigars are retailed at $50 per thousand, the tax will be $14.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 13. Regarding the special dispatch in the New York Herald of Sunday, stating that Gov. Curtin had secretly called for 2,000 troops, we are authorized to state that there is not a word of truth in it, such an idea never having entered the mind of the Governor.

New York, Aug. 13. A Philadelphia special says Mr. Vallandigham has been enrolled as a member of the Convention, and there are indications of trouble being caused by his taking a seat.

Gov. Fellock, Superintendent of the U. S. Mint, has been removed. Three hundred and seventy-eight deaths in Brooklyn last week, of which one hundred and thirteen were from cholera.

Philadelphia, Aug. 13. In order to promote harmony in the proceedings of the Convention, Fernando Wood has declined to appear as a delegate.

The rain which has been falling to-day has interrupted materially the completion of the wigwag, and it will not be ready to-morrow.

It is understood that a temporary organization will be had at the National Guards' Hall, on 6th and Race sts., about noon.

At a consultation of the Chairmen of the State delegations to-day with the Executive Committee, it was agreed that the organization of the Convention should comprise two gentlemen from each delegation as Vice-Presidents, and the same number on each of the committees on resolutions, credentials, &c.

Among the chairmen selected by various delegations are J. Tilden, of New York; J. G. Abbott, of Mississippi; T. S. Pomeroy, of Maryland; J. L. Orr, of South Carolina; Gov. Parsons, of Alabama; P. A. Morse, of Louisiana; Barton Abel, of Missouri; W. S. Ross, of Ohio; O. H. Browning, of Illinois; C. O. Loomis, of Michigan; Governor Porter and Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania.

Vallandigham declines positively to withdraw from the Convention. Henry Clay Dean, of Iowa, has written a letter declining to serve as a delegate.

Among the arrivals to-night was Dean Richmond. It is generally believed that the business of the Convention will be confined to an enunciation of principles without reference to any political party now existing.

It is supposed that Senator Hendricks, of Indiana, will be temporary Chairman of the Convention. Withrop, of Massachusetts, and Gen. Dix are spoken of in connection with the permanent presidency.

An address was delivered this evening in aid of the wives and children of Irish prisoners, at Music Hall. Hon. John F. Hogan, of Missouri, presided.

Chicago, Aug. 14. Philadelphia specials in the morning papers say the attendance at the Convention will be well over proceedings harmonious, although Vallandigham gives trouble by his obstinacy.

Vallandigham was called a Black Republican at the Grand House on Sunday evening, and knocked the mud down.

Fernando Wood published a letter declining to be considered as a delegate, and Henry Clay Dean, of Iowa, also withdrew.

The Kentucky delegation unanimously resolve to support Vallandigham and to leave the Convention if he is excluded.

There will be nothing of importance done here Wednesday, the wigwag not being finished. Ashmun will probably be President.

Dean Richmond and Thurlow Weed are actively managing preliminaries. Richmond agrees that the Democracy shall not meddle with the spoils.

A large meeting was held at the National Guards' Hall on Monday evening. Speeches by Montgomery Blair and Governor Orr. The Governor said:

It had been ten long years since he had the pleasure of addressing a Philadelphia audience, and since that time the North and South have been separated by a wide gulf, but that gulf was now closed, and he for one wished to see the two halves of this Union reunited. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak.

He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak.

He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak.

He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak.

He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak. He said that he was not here to speak, but to listen, and he would listen to any man who would speak.

ally merely to obtain admittance, so that afterwards they can throw a bomb and overthrow the Government? They do not ask admittance merely to create a disturbance. They come to know, and ask in order, in all sincerity, to add in legislation for their common country, and to enjoy that right the Constitution grants them to help make laws for a Union they love equally with the people of the North.

New York, Aug. 14. The morning papers have the following dispatches, via Atlantic cable: St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.

The United States Naval Officers made their official entry into the city yesterday, and had a grand reception. Fifty thousand people turned out to witness their entrance. They were welcomed by a magnificent ovation, with music and cheers, display of flags and thousands of handkerchiefs waving in all directions.

The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Hon. C. M. Clay, our Minister to the Court of St. Petersburg, gave a brilliant entertainment at his hotel to the diplomatic corps, the heads of the department and distinguished citizens in honor of the naval officers. A ball and supper were given by the Yacht Club, which was attended by the beauty and grace of the city. All the public buildings were decorated in Union colors and brilliantly illuminated, which, with the fireworks, tended to produce a very lively sensation; altogether the affair was a splendid tribute to America.

Berlin, Aug. 12. Prussia has informed Austria that she (Prussia) will maintain the right of Italy to Venice.

The semi-official organ, the Zeitung, says that Napoleon's absurd demand has raised hopes in France which it is impossible for Germany to fulfill. The ideas of the revolution must have taken the place of the unusual course of the policy of France. The changes which have taken place in Germany are of a national German, not an international character, and convey no menace or danger to France.

Vienna, Aug. 11. The Austrian Minister of Finance has resigned the Austrian Embassership to Rome, and has arrived in this city.

Brussels, Belgium, Aug. 11. News received in this city from Vienna says that great excitement exists there. 482 men are to be tried on a charge of high treason. Crowds of people in the streets have hailed the Emperor Francis Joseph with shouts of "abdicat, abdicat."

Florence, Italy, Aug. 12. The armistice between Austria and Italy of four weeks duration has been signed. It will continue in force until after the expiration of that time, unless notice of its cessation is duly given by either power to the other.

A line of demarcation, between Austria and Italy has been agreed upon, and the Venetians, who have been compelled to emigrate from Venice as part of the Austrian Empire, can now return to Venice.

A Year's Work of Rumselling.
Carefully compiled statistics show that 90,000 lives are annually destroyed by intemperance in the United States.

100,000 Men and women are yearly sent to prison in consequence of strong drink.

20,000 Children are yearly sent to the poor-house for the same reason.

300 Murders are another of the yearly fruits of intemperance.

400 Suicides follow these fearful catalogues of misery.

200,000 Orphans are bequeathed each year to private and public charity.

$200,000,000 are yearly expended to produce this shocking amount of crime and misery, and as much more is lost from the same cause.

THE ladies of Cedar Falls, Iowa, are indignant over a report that a peddler who recently visited that town, selling corsets and fitting them on the bodies of customers, etc., has since turned out to be a man dressed in feminine apparel.

SLANDER is a coward's revenge, dissimulation his defence.
